

CNHC News

November 2015

- Want to add another therapy to your existing CNHC registration?

If you wish to add a therapy or discipline to your CNHC registration you need to be verified for that new therapy. You also need to ensure your existing registration is up to date. Check the CNHC website under 'Current Registrants' for more details or click: Add new complementary therapies to your CNHC registration.

- E-Magazine for CNHC registrants

If you were registered with CNHC at 20 October you will have received a CNHC branded digital issue of Holistic Therapist Magazine including a foreword by Acting Chair Sheila Inglis. CNHC is delighted to be able to offer this free to registrants as a benefit of registration.

The magazine contains a wide range of articles designed to support practitioners with running a successful practice and includes a number of articles by CNHC registrants.

If you didn't receive the email, you can download your copy by logging into My CNHC and clicking on Resources.

- How to make the most of your CNHC registration

If you are registered with CNHC you have taken the step of showing that you have met UK-wide standards and that you are committed to professionalism and public protection. So how do you let your clients and the public know?

Here are some top tips:

- Give a CNHC leaflet to all new clients and enquirers.
- Make sure you have your CNHC certificate on your practice or reception room wall.
- Use CNHC appointment cards so your clients can see you use CNHC's Quality Mark.
- If you are using your therapy or discipline as part of a local event use CNHC's PR tips to write a local press release.
